Terms of Agreement

Students and Parents must read and initial each of the following:

1. Age Requirements for Course

Parent Student

The suggested age for this course is _____, however, exceptions can be made with approval from the teacher.

2. Communication

Parent Student

Following these procedures will help eliminate miscommunication and confusion:

- Students must keep a written record of all assignments given in class. Students are responsible to know exactly what is assigned and when it is due.
- Check your e-mail daily to receive feedback and updates. This enables you to stay caught up with corrections and course work.
- Please be prompt with replies to the teacher.
- Remember that the teacher is available through e-mail and, if needed, by phone. She will willingly and patiently answer any and all questions from students and from parents.
- Gossip, slander, and inappropriate language are strictly forbidden

3. Time Required

Parent Student

Time requirements to complete course work outside of class will vary among individual students, and it is the student's responsibility to manage their time accordingly. Parents, please assist them as needed. Students must also check their emails at least once a day for feedback and updates.

4. Tutoring Fees

Parent Student

Should a student require assistance beyond normal instruction, class time, and feedback, it may be deemed necessary to establish tutoring sessions. If the parent(s) of the student and the teacher agree to such sessions, the additional fee is $35 per hour or $25 per half-hour session. These tutoring fees are not included in student tuition.

5. Assignments

Parent Student

All assignments are to be completed by students in the time frame given by the teacher. Students are responsible for knowing and keeping a record of the course work requirements, and to accept the consequences for not meeting those requirements. The teacher retains the right to reject or not give feedback on assignments that are not submitted by the given deadline.

6. General Requirements Regarding Attendance

Parent Student

Regular attendance is necessary for a student's progress. Each new class period builds on the previous class, making it important to attend every class offered during the term. Irregular attendance prevents students from learning the ideas and concepts taught in a course.

Terms of Agreement

7. Tardiness

Parent

Student

Arriving to class late or unprepared is considered tardy. Be punctual and ready to participate. Tardiness is a disruption and a hindrance to class discussion. If you know you will be late to class, please notify the teacher before the start of class. Arriving late without notice will be considered tardy. Each instance of tardiness will result in the following:

1. On the first instance, the student will be advised and encouraged to come prepared and be on time.
2. On the second instance, the student will not be able to attend class until all due homework is turned in.
3. On the third instance, the student will not be able to attend class until all due homework is turned in and the teacher will consult with the student and parents/guardians to establish a plan for future punctuality and readiness.
4. On the fourth instance, the student may be dismissed from the class at the discretion of the teacher.

To prevent tardiness, be in the habit of checking all homework the day before class and plan to arrive 5 -10 minutes early.

8. Absences and Make-up Work

Parent

Student

Attendance is marked as either “present” or “absent.”

In the event of unintended absences due to illness or unforeseen circumstances, the student must contact the teacher to collect notes and assignments from the missed class. It is the student’s responsibility to gather this material and make-up any missed work.

Parents, if you know that your child will miss a class due to planned travel or other events that conflict with class time, please notify the teacher 2 weeks in advance. Assignments will be due when the student returns to class, unless otherwise directed by the teacher.

9. Class Withdrawal

Parent

Student

Any student wishing to withdraw from a course must do so by notifying the teacher. Please take note of the “Refund Policy.” Failing to attend a class is not the same as withdrawing from a class, and may result in the forfeiture of any refund.

10. Late Work

Parent

Student

The student is the first cause of learning. The teacher cannot complete the student's work, understand for him, or force him to complete assignments. The students must take on the commitment to do the work and turn it in. If the student becomes two weeks behind in his work for reasons other than family emergency, the teacher reserves the right to no longer assess the student’s work, require tutoring fees for the student, or remove the student from the course.

11. Required materials

Parent

Student

This course does not provide the required books or materials. It is the student’s responsibility to view the course syllabus and purchase the required books.

Terms of Agreement

12. Homework

Parent Student

Homework is assigned in order to (1) apply the ideas taught in a class, (2) prepare for class book discussion, and (3) prepare for the next class meeting.

Homework may be assigned by the teacher at her discretion. It is important that students complete the work in a timely manner and according to the parameters given by the teacher. All homework is to be done by the student.

Assessment Policy

13. Principles

The purpose of assessment is to give the student feedback on their writing so they can learn more effectively. Assessment must be objective, clear, known, and fitting. Some homework may not require formal assessment.

14. Procedure

Parent Student

The teacher assesses homework and essays using an alternate form of grading which can be found in the evaluation guide chart in the syllabus. If at any time the student is struggling with the course, the teacher will inform the parents and discuss the best course of action.

15. End of Course Evaluations

Parent Student

Evaluations will be sent to the parents upon the conclusion of all course work. The evaluation will give a recommended grade and an overall assessment of the student's work.

16. Student Conduct

Parent Student

Together we will conduct ourselves according to the biblical principal in Mathew 7:12, "In everything, therefore, treat people the same way you want them to treat you, for this is the Law and the Prophets." (ESV)

We will practice the Student Virtues: Love, Humility, Patience, Constancy, Perseverance, Temperance, and Self-control. As a class, we will pursue Truth, Goodness, and Beauty with kindness and respect towards each other.

17. Financial Information

Parent Student

All students must enroll by sending the Registration form and the Terms of Agreement, fully completed and signed, to the teacher. Once accepted, the teacher will notify the student and family via e-mail, followed by an invoice for the class tuition. Payments must be made before the first day of class. Please feel free to contact the teacher with any questions concerning class tuition.

18. Payment Delinquency

Parent Student

Failure to make full payment will forfeit the student's seat or access to the class. The seat will remain closed to your child until a full payment has been received.
